TOUR ITINERARY

Total Cost
€389 per person sharing
*Single supplement €80

Day 1 We leave Wexford and head for Castlebar in Co. Mayo travelling across the varied landscape of Leinster and Connaught arriving late afternoon to our hotel. Join your group for dinner this evening and music in the bar afterwards.

Day 2 Today we travel out north west towards the Céide Fields passing by Killala Bay. The Céide Fields are the oldest recorded man-made system in the world consisting of fields, dwelling areas and megalithic tombs. Our tour continues with a drive through the county of Mayo towards the windswept shores of Mullet Peninsula, hugging the rugged edge of Broad Haven and Atlantic Tour Coast Line. We return to our Hotel for Dinner.

Day 3 It's an early start today as our first stop leads us to the Country Life Museum. Our Tour will learn about the times how the ordinary people lived during events such as the Land War and the 1916 Rising. The Major historical events and occurrences throughout Ireland during the period from 1850 to 1950 certainly had an impact on the lives of ordinary people living in rural locations, particularly their relationship with the land. In the afternoon we stop off at Knock Shrine. Ireland's famous religious centre where it is believed that an Apparation of Our Lady Took place in 1879, our tour will enjoy a guided tour of the grounds before having time to explore by yourself and enjoy the sacred place.

Day 4 Today after a delicious Irish breakfast we take the spectacular Atlantic Drive heading out to Achill Island and across its famous bridge. The scenic drive is a 40Km stunning coastal scenery route. Achill is the largest island of the Irish coast, 20kms long and 15kms wide. Learn about Grainuaile, the legendary Pirate Queen of the 16th Century whose base was on the south of Clare Island and who built the tower house in Kildavnet.

Day 5 Its our final day and following a leisurely breakfast we board our coach for Westport, one of the prettiest towns in Ireland for a relaxing day. Our first stop brings to the stately home that is Westport House located just outside the town. Enjoy the guided tour with over 30 rooms on show, immerse yourself in life as far back as the 16th Century with Grace O Malley the Pirate Queen of Connaught who ruled the land and seas around the estate.

We make our way back home to Wexford
